ROANOKE, VA., SEPT. 7, 1894.

WE ARE now prepared to receive plate stories of heroic deeds performed during the tragic conflagration in the Northwest. 'Tis a grand opening for space writers, and may, perchance, relieve us from poring over tedious and imaginative war stories.

THE death of J. Porter Holladay removes from Roanoke one of her brightest and most promising citizens. Although young in years Mr. Holladay had established an enviable reputation by his manliness and Christian virtues and his untimely end will be regretted by a wide circle of sorrowing friends.

MR. HEERMANS did not receive the Republican nomination for Congress.
He showed his soreness and demonstrated the disaffection in the ranks of the G. O. P. in this district by kicking.
After the roast he received from Convention Chairman O'Brien and his own supporter, Rev. W. M. Fitzwalter, he will undoubtedly come to the conclusion that his feelings should be placed in bond and never released.

THE evil effects of Gorman's Populist tariff bill are beginning to be felt.
The action of the Louisiana sugar planters convention at New Orleans yesterday probably means the loss of that State to Democracy for many years to come. The sooner the people of Maryland retire Mr. Gorman to private life the better it will be for the party which he so signally manages to disgrace as one of its leaders.

Good old Archie Latham, of the Cincinnati baseball team, whose pleas-antries have won for him regard everywhere, is yet playing good ball. Like "Uncle Anse," Latham will never grow old, and a great big cipher is always found opposite his name in the error column. How different do the people accept gentlemanly talent in ball playing from the methods of hoodlumism employed by many players who have not "got it in 'em" to be decent.

IT is to be deplored that such a condition of affairs exists in Roanoke as THE TIMES makes public in its news columns this morning. Although the indications are that the woman, who was arrested last night, has been conducting her nefarious arts for a decade or more, she has finally been run to earth and it is to be hoped a speedy trial will follow and if she is guilty, that her punishment will also be speedy.
Sergeant Gold and Officer Johnson have been untiring in their efforts to bring this woman to justice and deserve the thanks of the community for their efficient work.

PREPARE THE CHILD FOR SCHOOL.

The public schools open Monday and the authorities have provided for increased and comfortable accommodation for the pupils. Parents owe it to their children that they do not delay in preparing them to enter upon a course of education.

Entirely too many mothers put off until "to-morrow" the arrangements necessary. Then they wonder why their child, whom they consider brighter and more intellectual than their neighbor's, should receive only a certificate of commendation instead of a medal.

Let those mothers remember their own childhood. How difficult is it for a child to enter a class a week or two late and attempt to "catch up."

Have your children ready and thoroughly prepared at an early hour Monday morning and start them off to school in seasonable time.

Young People's Society Meeting.
The Young People's Society of the First Presbyterian Church will hold their regular meeting to night, J. R.
Collingwood will conduct the services, and the topic of discussion will be:
"Worldliness in the Church; the Church in the World."

THERE is an iron fence in Ohio that the day it was set. The Cushman Iron as good and look ten times better.

test here to night. About ten young

"SAVED MY LIFE."

"I SPAT up blood and had hemorrhages and a terrible cough that racked my whole frame. My sleep was broken by spells of coughing and my chest was sore and ached. My throat felt raw and had stringy mucus constantly falling into it. My appetite was very poor and the sight of food sometimes made me sick at the stomach. I lost flesh and strength every day and had become very weak and miserable and was sure I had consumption. When I called at the Curtis Medical Institute for examination I could hardly believe the statement that my case was car-rable and that I could be cured, but such has been the truth. I am now entirely cured of the cough and spitting of blood, have an excellent appetite, sleep soundly, feel strong and hearty, lungs seem entirely healed. In fact, I can't begin to tell half the good that has been done me. I heartily recommend the Curtis treatment to any who suffer as I did. I certainly think it saved my life, as I had no idea a few months ago that I would be living now. Mrs.
S. G. CURTIS, Vinton, Va."

In regard to the above statement we wish to say that Mrs. Curtis is in no way interested in the Curtis Medical Institute or anyone connected with it.
The name is a mere coincidence.

The Curtis Medical Institute has offices at 213 Campbell avenue. Hours, vous system. Medicines free to patients.

Gained Every Day

On Taking Hood's Sarsaparilla—Ague, Malaria, Neuralgia, Sick Headaches.

Miss Hattie Stuart

I have found such benefit in Hood's Sarsaparilla during the summer that I intend never to be without it. I could scarcely go about, for ague and malaria, when I got a bottle. Every day after that I found myself improving. I took three bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I feel as fresh and strong as any woman would wish to be. Instead of housework being a burden it is now a pleasure. I used to have Neuralgia Headaches.

But seldom have them now. If I feel I am going to have a headache, it matters not at what hour, I just take one of Hood's Pills and in a few minutes the pain is gone.

Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures less than half an hour the dizzy feeling is all gone." MISS HATTIE STUART, Elmidae, Kan.

efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

KENNERLY ON TRIAL.

After Several Postponements the Case Finally Gone Into.

The trial of Thomas S. Kennerly, on the charge of seducing Miss Hattie Smith, began in the Hastings Court yesterday morning before the following jury: C. C. Callender, O. D. Derr, Joseph H. Earman, T. J. Mitchell, J.
A. Page, J. B. Wertz, Henry C. Shelor, G. M. Page, M. Packenthal, E. G.
Brindle, J. W. Boswell and T. C.
Anderson. Kennerly is represented by Judge N. H. Hairston, of Martinsville, Jones & Stums, of this city and H. L.
Moss, of Rocky Mount. J. W. Hartwell, commonwealth's attorney is representing the State.

J. E. Mulcare, a brother-in law of Miss Smith, was the first witness examined. He deposed as follows: "I suspected that Kennerly was too intimate with Miss Smith and warned him to keep away from her. He paid no attention to the warning. I finally swore out a warrant for his arrest and a warrant of lunacy against Miss Smith, because she had threatened the life of her mother, and my wife, who is her sister."

Mrs. Alice Miller, the next witness, testified that Miss Smith had been to her house on Seventh avenue s. w. and had been given a private room. After she had moved to the West End Miss Smith had also been there and had sent for Kennerly.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Miller's testimony court adjourned until 2:30 in the afternoon.

At the afternoon session J. E. Earp testified that Kennerly's office was at that time in the rear of his candy store, and that he had frequently talked with Miss Smith, when she would call for Kennerly, over the phone. Once she called for him, and he told her he was out. She then told the witness to tell Kennerly that she was on her way to the place of meeting and for him to come as soon as he came in.

W. A. Reed, bookkeeper at Hotel Roanoke, stated that some time in January Mr. Kennerly, in company with another gentleman, came to the hotel about 11 o'clock, and registered a lady as Miss Lottie Ferris, of Staunton, who afterwards proved to be Miss Smith.

Dr. Cannaday deposed that Miss Smith came to his sanatorium in December and he treated her for hysteria. He first learned that she knew Kennerly by her talking to him over the telephone. He reported the matter to Mr.
Mulcare. Dr. Cannaday was given a batch of letters to identify and said he and Mr. Smith, a brother of Miss Smith, found them in her wardrobe. Commonwealth's Attorney Hartwell wanted to introduce the letters as testimony.
Counsel for defendant objected and Judge Woods decided that it was not proper testimony on the ground that it had not been proved who the letters belonged to or who wrote them.

R. P. Page, watchman at Hotel Roanoke, corroborated the testimony of Mr.
Reed.

Mamie Spradlin, who lives with Annie Stewart, on Fifth avenue, northwest, testified that R. L. Cooper brought Miss Smith to Annie Stewart's house in a carriage about noon one day and secured a room for her. Kennedy and Cooper returned that night between 7 and 8 o'clock and the three left together.

R. L. Cooper testified that he went to Mrs. Miller's in the West End one morning in January and met Miss Smith, who was drunk at the time. She said she was going to leave Roanoke and wanted to see Mr. Kennerly before she left. He took her to Annie Stewart's and then went and found Kennerly.
Together they went to see her and took her to Hotel Roanoke where she was arrested later on that night.

J. C. Moir and A. S. Hughes testified that they had known Miss Smith for several years and never knew anything detrimental to her character until this trouble arose.

The commonwealth will conclude its testimony this morning and the case will probably be finished this afternoon.

ing of a member from each ward, was terests of the club.
